

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES,

MARCH 26, 1822.

The Committee of Finance, to whom was recommitted the petition of Paul Lanusse and F. Bailey Blanchard, and the additional evidence,

REPORT:

That, upon a re-examination, it does not appear that the goods for which debenture certificates are prayed, were shipped to a foreign port. The vessel and master, on board which the goods were shipped, were different from those by which the goods were landed. This difference not being explained, the committee recommend an adherence to their former resolution—that

The prayer of the petitioner ought not to be granted.
